

Navigating Potential Impact of U.S. Tariffs: Resources for Your Business

The North Vancouver Chamber acknowledges the threat of U.S. tariffs and the potential future challenges that these trade barriers may pose to our local businesses.

Now more than ever, it is crucial for businesses to remain prepared for any shifts that could affect the economic landscape.

We are committed to keeping businesses informed while offering tools and support to manage potential tariff impacts. This page will provide helpful resources to support you in navigating the evolving trade landscape.

What You Can Do

- Engage with the NV Chamber for advocacy and advice.
- Stay updated on tariff changes and government responses.
- Explore alternative sourcing strategies or local suppliers to reduce tariff exposure.
- Review your supply chain and pricing strategies to adapt to tariff impacts.

Chamber Resources

North Vancouver Chamber

- Shop the Shore — Shopping locally ensures your money stays within the region, supporting jobs and contributing to the growth of North Vancouver's economy.
- Member Directory — Explore the NV Chamber's diverse member directory and discover local retailers and suppliers right in your backyard.

BC Chamber of Commerce

- Statement on U.S. Tariffs — February 1, 2025

Canadian Chamber of Commerce

- Response to U.S. Tariffs — February 1, 2025
- Business Data Lab: Canada-U.S. Trade Tracker

Government Resources

- B.C. Government
Response to U.S. Tariffs — February 1, 2025
- Government of Canada
Response to U.S. tariffs on Canadian goods — February 1, 2025

- Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA)
Responsible for administering tariffs, customs duties, and trade compliance.
Visit: CBSA – Tariffs
- Business Development Bank of Canada
Resources for businesses affected by U.S. tariffs